PHYSICIANS

UFHealth.org

University of Florida Health is the Southeast's most comprehensive academic health center. Our world-class physicians and staff serve patients from all 67 Florida counties, from throughout the nation and from more than a dozen countries each year.

With main campuses in Gainesville and Jacksonville, regional sites in Jupiter, Leesburg, The Villages, and St. Augustine, and more than 30,000 faculty and staff, UF Health includes six health colleges, 10 research institutes and centers, more than 115 physician practice locations, numerous outpatient services throughout Central, North Central, and Northeast Florida.

Approximately 2,000 UF physicians provide care in more than 100 specialty and subspecialty medical areas, from primary care to highly complex, subspecialty care, including cancer, cardiovascular, neurology, neurosurgery, pediatrics and transplantation services. More than 100 UF physician practices throughout north central and north Florida expand our care even further. The UF College of Medicine maintains a number of significant affiliation relationships in various areas of the state, including Sacred Heart in Pensacola and Halifax Health in Daytona Beach.

The leading-edge physicians at UF Health offer invaluable services to our patients. Communication is a key to success in medical care, and UF physicians collaborate within one network and one medical record to treat patients efficiently and effectively.

Dedicated to high-quality patient care, clinical education and research, UF faculty physicians, nurses and the entire health care system strive to improve our patients' lives and to put you at the center of everything we do.
