

Get Rewarded for Working on Your Health

Your wellness incentive program, Better You Strides, powered by Onlife, is now open! To get started, complete a free biometric screening and your personal health assessment. The appointment scheduler and wellness platform will be available on March 1, 2024.

Program Checklist

Step 1: Complete your biometric screening at an on-site event or at a participating Quest Diagnostics lab.

You may earn your biometric screening credit by choosing one of the two options below:

1. On-site at one of the hospitals or at some off-site locations.

Screenings will be held at Professional Park, the 1329 Building and the UF Health Shands Hospital Atrium May 1-10 and many off-site locations in April and May. Click this link to register for your screening. You will receive a $25 Amazon e-gift card for completing your screening at one of the on-site events! Note: Parking passes are not available to event attendees.

2. At a participating Quest Diagnostics lab.

Schedule your screening at a participating lab at a time and location that works best for YOU! Participating labs are located across the state, including two locations in Gainesville. Screenings at a participating Quest Diagnostics lab are open June 1-August 31, 2024. Appointments are required. Click this link for directions on scheduling your appointment. Screenings at a Quest Diagnostics lab are not considered work time. Participants who complete a biometric screening at a participating Quest Diagnostics lab will receive a $25 Amazon e-gift card in your email by October.

Step 2: Log in to your Better You Strides portal

Create your Better You Strides account by following the directions below. Directions are slightly different for GatorCare subscribers/contract holders and those who elect to waive GatorCare coverage.
